Musical Ladder – New This Fall

We are excited to announce that Top Note is starting a program which is a music lesson award system call the Musical-Ladder-System. This free and proven system to help students get excited about music and helps keep parents more informed as to how the students are developing. This program is like karate belt tests, every 3 months or so your teacher will schedule a test to reach a goal for your child. As the students passes the test, they will receive one of the awesome wristbands for their level. They also get a certificate of achievement. Please email topnotemusic2019@gmail.com if you need further information.
